Guidelines

Application deadline: 2 October 2025, 23.59

Please send the full project application package (with "European Short Pitch 2026" in the subject line) to industry@kurzfilmtage.ch.

- Please note that the materials should be:
 - all in English,
 - in the order indicated in the list above,
 - in one PDF file (max. file size 25MB),
 - named after the project title and author's full name (i.e. THE PIANO LESSON_Jane Campion)
- Please keep to the number of pages and ensure that the information is clear and readable (for example, avoid using too small fonts or complex layouts).
- Please note that you are free to submit pitch decks and other additional materials: however, reading them is totally optional for the ESP reading and selection committees. So please do not rely on additional materials for key information about your project: all relevant information for the application should be present in the mandatory requested materials.

The undersigned accepts the Pitching Session: European Short Pitch Rules and Regulations.

The undersigned agrees that in the event of selection for the pitch, the name of the participant, the project title and the synopsis may be published on the website of Kurzfilmtage.

The undersigned agrees that in the event of winning the pitch, the personal data given in this application form may be made available to other participants of European Short Pitch 2026.
