1 Subject of agreement

Kurzfilmtage presents the event Industry Conversation: Reasons to Buy a Film. It offers short film directors an opportunity to present the first three minutes of a current project to experts who work in acquisitions, sales, and distribution. Prominent industry representatives watch the clips and assess the films' market potential. The event simulates a realistic situation in the film industry, demonstrating how professionals evaluate films submitted to them.

2 Selection process

The call for submissions is typically announced two months in advance.

A team of Kurzfilmtage representatives selects a maximum of five film clips for participation. Projects must be selected unanimously.

The decisions are irreversible and are typically communicated to applicants two weeks prior to the event. Applicants are not entitled to a statement of reasons.

3 General conditions of participation

The director(s) of a film confirm their consent with their signature on the application.

Applications must be submitted in English and contain the following:

- Signed application form
- Bio-/filmography
- Film in the original English language or with English subtitles (during the event, only the first three minutes of the film will be screened)*

*via Vimeo, WeTransfer, or another filesharing platform

4 Formal criteria

The event is open to Swiss and international productions – fiction, documentary, animation, and experimental films – that have not yet been released or that are in the early phase of distribution. Rough cuts and works in progress are also eligible.

Applicants must have made at least one short film that was screened publicly (cinema, television, or festival).
